

Join us in stopping the construction of a new federal prison on a former coal mine in Letcher County, Kentucky.

Find out more at

FightToxicPrisons.org

Join us in stopping the construction of a new federal prison on a former coal mine in Letcher County, Kentucky.

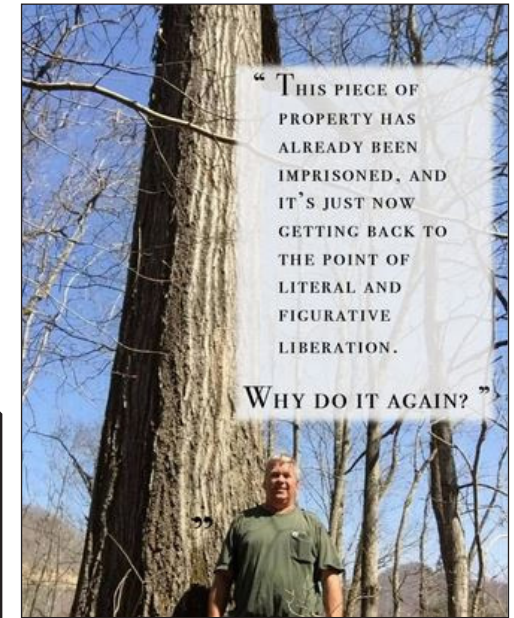

Find out more at

FightToxicPrisons.org

What is the Campaign to Fight Toxic Prisons?

The Fight Toxic Prisons (FTP) collective takes action to challenge the prison industrial complex which is putting prisoners at risk of dangerous environmental conditions, as well as impacting surrounding communities and ecosystems by their construction and operation.

Check out our social media, join our mailing list and join us for the 3rd annual Fight Toxic Prisons Convergence, June 8 - 11, 2018, taking place in Pittsburgh, PA.

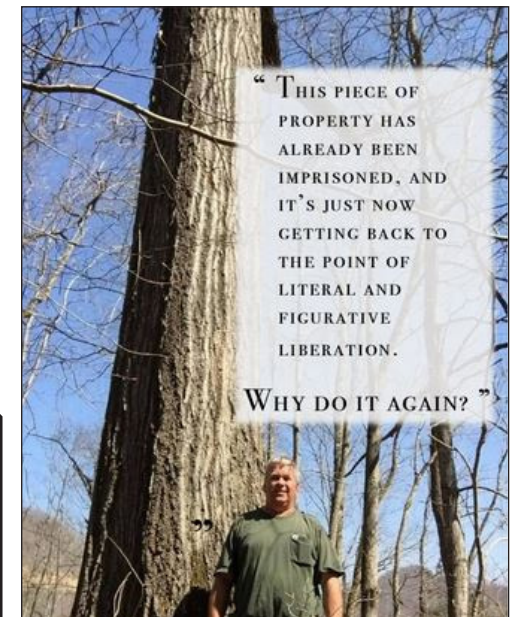

Quote from a neighbor of the proposed prison, Mitch Whitaker, who is concerned about the Bureau of Prisons plan

What is the Campaign to Fight Toxic Prisons?

The Fight Toxic Prisons (FTP) collective takes action to challenge the prison industrial complex which is putting prisoners at risk of dangerous environmental conditions, as well as impacting surrounding communities and ecosystems by their construction and operation.

Check out our social media, join our mailing list and join us for the 3rd annual Fight Toxic Prisons Convergence, June 8 - 11, 2018, taking place in Pittsburgh, PA.

Quote from a neighbor of the proposed prison, Mitch Whitaker, who is concerned about the Bureau of Prisons plan